SUBJECT: WELFARE-TO-WORK BROCHURE

This Information Bulletin announces the publication of a Welfare-to-Work brochure (DE 8716) developed by the Employment Development Department (EDD). "Welfare-to-Work: Producing a Workforce for California's Economy," targets the business community and identifies it as the most significant member of the partnership involved in meeting the challenge of welfare reform. The brochure not only discusses the incentives available to employers such as motivated workers, training funds, tax credits, and supportive services, it itemizes available resources through the local Private Industry Council.

To obtain copies of the Welfare-to-Work brochure, contact your local EDD Job Service office. Additional information is available on EDD's Internet home page: <http://www.edd.cahwnet.gov/>.
